2018 Winter is Near 5 Days / 4 Nights

Day 1: Tollymore Forest Park & Belfast Sightseeing

Travel north to explore Tollymore Forest Park in County Down, where many important scenes were filmed – the Starks discovering the direwolves, Ramsey hunting down Theon, and the men of the Night's Watch battle with the White Walkers. Then, make your way into Belfast to see the city's landmarks and visit Crumlin Road Gaol to learn about the jail's 150 year history.

(D)

Day 2: Downhill Strand & the Dark Hedges

Drive to Downhill Strand to visit Mussenden Temple. The beautiful beach setting, known to fans as Dragonstone, is where Melisandre is first introduced during a dramatic scene in season two. Continue on to view Giant's Causeway and the iconic Dark Hedges, a forbidding stretch of road known in the series as Kingsroad.

(B, D)

Day 3: Castle Ward & Dublin

After a hearty Irish breakfast, spend your morning at Castle Ward, a 14th century castle complex transformed into Winterfell, home of the Starks, for filming of the series. Enjoy admission to the movie set, dress up in authentic outfits, and pose for countless photo opportunities. Depart for Dublin for a panoramic tour and stop for a pint at the Guinness Storehouse.

(B)

Day 4: Dublin at Leisure

Enjoy a full day free in the heart of Dublin. Use your Hop-on Hop-off pass to get around the city and see any number of historical sites. A visit to one of the following attractions is included: Teeling Whiskey Distillery, General Post Office Museum or EPIC Ireland.

(B)

Day 5: Depart Dublin for Home

Your tour ends after breakfast today.

(B)

B: Breakfast; L: Lunch; D: Dinner
